

"Master Mosaicist graduated in 2020, she began collaborating with various laboratories in the area already in 2019, continuing regularly after having attended the specialization course. She works using all the techniques learned at the Mosaic School of Friuli, from Roman mosaic to contemporary and currently, in addition to being an Artisan, she teaches music and other subjects both privately and in schools."